INSIDE - KATE'S MOM'S HOUSE - BATHROOM

KATE was inspecting her sister's baby bag, and found a PREGNANCY TEST. She was a few days late and wondered if it was possible. Was she pregnant? Or was it normal that her period hadn't arrived yet? Was she even pregnant? Finally, curiosity took over, making it official. She was going to take the test.

After peeing on said stick, she put it on the counter right next to her. All of sudden, her small niece, KASI, arrives.

KASI

Hi, Auntie Kate!

Kate glances and meets Kasi's gaze. It holds confusion, and terror at the same time.

KATE

Hi, Kasi. What are you doing?

KASI

Not much. Do you need to use the bathroom?

Kate rolled her eyes. Didn't Kasi see that she was actually using the bathroom? Suddenly, she felt that her niece was looking at the pregnancy test she had left in the counter.

KASI

What's this?

Even though her niece was at the age of wanting to know every single thing that happened through her eyes, Kate didn't want her to tell her mother, COURTNEY. Courtney would laugh and think that Kate was crazy enough to even take a pregnancy test. Her whole family thought that she didn't want an offspring, a child of her own, but they were wrong. She wanted one. But, she had to hide it.

KATE

Um, this is my... special magic marker.

Her niece gasped in shock and surprise. Of course, Kate knew that Courtney hated magic markers. Why didn't she say the truth and suffer humiliation?

KASI

Uh-oh.

KATE

What?

Kasi is still frozen on her spot.

KASI

We're not allowed to have magic markers in the house. I have to tell my mom.

Kate gasps.

KATE

No. You don't need to tell your mom. Actually... can I have it back? Because-

Kasi grabs it. It is clear that she will tell her mom or do something even worse. She then proceeds to move around the bathroom.

KATE

Kasi!

The little girl smirks at her aunt.

KASI

What?! You want this?

Kate sighed, chasing her niece. She reached until Kasi entered the Jump-Jump, who was positioned in the backyard.

BACKYARD - JUMP JUMP

Kasi entered the jump-jump, which was a total chaos. Talk about mayhem and four-year olds mixed together. Kate was observing from the outside.

KATE

This is not a joke... this is not a game. Auntie Kate needs her marker back, okay?

Kasi peeked her head out of the jump-jump, and stuck her tongue at her aunt, who was distressed at the moment.

KATE

Kasi!

KASI

Come on! Come and get it!

Kate sighed.

KATE

Kasi, honey, please give me that marker.

KASI

Keep away! Come and get it, old lady!

KATE

What?!

Kate was stressed, but she entered the jump-jump. It was complete chaos, and four-year olds mixed together in a great, melting pot. A kid, KID #1, stuck her tongue at the older woman.

KATE

Give it to me!

The kid decided to mock her.

KID #1

Give it to me!

KATE

Just give me the marker, okay?

KID #1

Just give me the marker, okay?

KID #2

Come and get it! Sucker!

Kate looks determined, when she just got kicked out of the jump-jump. She gets up, closes the jump-jump windows, and shouts.

KATE

Kasi! That marker on your mouth... I peed on it!

Kasi looks disgusted. She spits it up, and Kate grabs it, content. The little girl looks like she's about to throw up, but the camera cuts and we see Kate seeing that it says Negative.
